Texas Brew Honey Roasted Spread/Dip

- 2 to 4 Tbsp. Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild according to desired consistency
- 8 oz low fat cream cheese (whole cream cheese makes a stiffer spread)
- 2 garlic cloves, chopped/pressed
- ½ tsp. onion powder
- ¼ tsp. garlic powder
- 1 tsp. ancho chili powder (regular chili powder can be substituted)
- 3 Tbsp. fresh cilantro, rinsed, patted dry and finely chopped (optional)
- 1 tsp. kosher salt

Dip: Add 2 to 4 Tbsp. of light or regular sour cream for desired consistency.

Blend all ingredients in a food processor until smooth. Best if refrigerated overnight.

Suggestion: Great for making a southwest chicken salad, on veggie or meat wraps, as stuffing for bacon wrapped grilled jalapenos, on crackers or gourmet bread when spread with apricot jelly and cream cheese. Using no sour cream & whole cream cheese makes a stiff spread great for filling celery, topping crackers, or try filling a jalapeno with shrimp & spread. Wrap with bacon & grill.

Texas Brew Cream Sauce

- 3 to 4 Tbsp. Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
- 1 cup heavy cream or Half & Half

Pour 1 cup of heavy cream or 1 cup of Half & Half in a small warm skillet. Add 3 to 4 tablespoons of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa and bring to a simmer. Let simmer for 2 minutes or until thickened. You may add crumbled flash fried cilantro leaves to the sauce.

Suggestion: Pour over already prepared grilled shrimp, crab cakes, chicken, enchiladas or drizzle over grilled poblano peppers, asparagus, roasted tomatoes or any vegetable of your choice. You can also use as a topping for nachos or as a sauce on hot roast beef/turkey sandwiches or shrimp tostados. You can refrigerate this sauce and use it the next day with great success.

Texas Brew Not Your Momma's Cole Slaw

Dressing

6 Tbsp. Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
8 oz light sour cream (whole sour cream makes a thicker dressing)
8 oz low fat cream cheese (whole cream cheese makes a thicker dressing)
2 garlic cloves, chopped/pressed
½ tsp. onion powder
½ tsp. garlic powder
1 tsp. ancho chili powder (regular chili powder can be substituted)
2 Tbsp. fresh lime juice
2 Tbsp. apple cider vinegar
3 Tbsp. cilantro, chopped
2 tsp. kosher salt

Blend all ingredients well, except Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, in a food processor. Once blended, add salsa and blend just enough to disperse throughout the dressing. Refrigerate overnight. Yields approximately 2 ½ cups of dressing.

Note: Always mix slaw and dressing 10 to 15 minutes prior to serving. Do not pre-mix the day before.

Slaw

1 small head of Napa cabbage grated (1¼ lbs. Cole slaw mix can be substituted, just add chopped green onions)
¼ head purple cabbage, grated
2 carrots, grated or finely julienned
1 cup green onions, finely chopped
2 Tbsp. fresh lime juice
1 tsp. kosher salt

Mix slaw ingredients and add as much dressing to the above slaw recipe as you wish 10 to 15 minutes prior to serving. Yields approximately 1¼ lbs. of slaw mix depending on size of Napa cabbage. Salt to taste.

Suggestion: A wonderful base for grilled chicken salad. Put on spring mix, spinach leaves or add diced grilled chicken, parmesan cheese, dried cranberries and sliced almonds. Serve it on fish tacos or with grilled shrimp brushed with Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa or simply serve on tortilla chips or crackers. For cheese lovers try it on crackers with parmesan, feta or blue cheese.

Texas Brew Pulled Chicken Mini Bite Sandwiches

8 Tbsp. Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
4 chicken thighs (skin on, trimmed of all excess fat)
4 oz. chicken stock
1 Tbsp. extra virgin olive oil
½ yellow onion, chopped
2 garlic cloves, chopped/pressed
½ tsp. ancho chili powder (regular chili powder can be substituted)
1 tsp. kosher salt
12 sweet rolls or any baking rolls (best to use a slightly sweet roll)

Season the chicken with chili powder and salt. Sear in oil, skin side down. Place chicken in shallow covered baking dish. Sauté onions and garlic in same pan making sure to scrape the brown bits left from the chicken. Once brown, add chicken stock and Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa then bring to a simmer. Pour over chicken, cover and place in a 325° oven. Bake for 1½ hours or until done.

Remove from oven and let cool. Pull chicken off; discard all skin, fat and bones. Skim fat from cooking liquid and discard. Mix remaining liquid in a blender until smooth. Season the sauce to taste. Spoon over the pulled chicken (be careful to not over sauce the chicken). The idea is to just moisten the meat.

Toast rolls. Slice rolls and layer with pulled chicken. Top with pickled red onions.

Suggestion: A perfect accompaniment would be sliced pickles, pickled jalapenos or pickled red onion.

Pickled Red Onions

1 medium red onion (sliced in thin rings and separated)
12 oz. bottle of red wine vinegar
1 Tbsp. sugar
1 tsp. black pepper

In a stainless steel stock pot bring the vinegar, pepper and sugar to a simmer. Place onions in the pot; push the onions down to cover them with the vinegar. You may think there is not enough liquid, be patient. The "pickling" only takes about 30 seconds. Remove onions from the vinegar and place on a glass plate and let cool to room temperature. Covered, they will last several days in the refrigerator. These are also good on left over Texas Beer Braised Short Ribs which have been pulled apart and put on sandwiches.

Texas Brew Spicy Cheddar Meat-TA-balls

¾ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
1 lb. frozen or homemade meatballs
¾ cup water
¾ cup condensed aged cheddar cheese sauce or aged cheddar cheese spread

Cook meatballs in half Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa and water. Should be ¾ covered. Simmer till done. Transfer meatballs to a Crockpot. Add cheddar nacho sauce or cheddar cheese spread to the remaining liquid. Simmer on low until cheese is melted while stirring gently. Add to Crockpot. Simmer approximately 30 minutes or until gravy is at desired thickness. You may add more water or salsa when gravy needs to be thinned. Serve hot with tortilla chips or rolled in a hot flour or corn tortilla with guacamole, sour cream, pica de gallo, and cilantro for an entirely unique flavor.

Note: Excellent recipe to make the day before. You can add more Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa if you desire a richer, browner gravy. Using Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild for this recipe makes for nice mellow flavor sure to please everyone. One 16 oz. jar of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa will do approx. 4 lbs. of meat balls. If doing large quantities, the larger and flatter the pan the better. Electric skillets and roasters work well. You can always transfer to a Crockpot if desired. If making large batches, just follow the ½ water to ½ salsa rule. Add cheese to taste. I love to make mine with more gravy and pour on chips.

Note: If using homemade meat balls it is preferable to brown them before adding Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa to prevent breakage. Once meatballs are browned, follow previous instructions.

Pica De Gallo

4 tomatoes
½ medium red onion, finely chopped
3 jalapeno peppers, finely chopped
½ tsp. garlic, finely chopped
½ tsp. cumin
1 cup cilantro, chopped
½ tsp. black pepper (optional)
1 Tbsp. fresh lime juice

Combine all ingredients in a medium bowl.

Let stand one hour for best flavor before serving.

Texas Brew Chipotle Queso

2 cups Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
1 piece bacon, chopped (crisp if desired)
2 cups chicken stock
½ cup flour + 2 Tbsp.
½ cup whole butter
1 cup milk
½ cup heavy cream or Half & Half
10 oz extra sharp white cheddar, grated
1 small onion, finely diced
1 Tbsp. cumin
1 tsp. red pepper flakes
1 – 2 bay leaves
1 fresh lemon
Kosher salt
Black pepper

Heat chopped bacon with butter on low in a heavy saucepan. Add onion and sauté. Add spices and stir until well dispersed. Sprinkle in flour while whisking briskly until paste forms. Whisk in heated chicken stock until lump free.

After the stock, whisk in the milk and cream until smooth. Allow to thicken slightly and come to a simmer. Make sure to whisk constantly. While continuing to simmer, fold in grated cheese in ½ cup increments. Make sure each addition of cheese is melted smooth before adding more.

Add Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, lemon juice and whisk until well blended. Season with salt and pepper to taste.

Suggestion: Serve on nacho chips with jalapenos. Drizzle on grilled shrimp, shrimp tostadas or hot roast beef sandwiches topped with melted pepper jack or provolone cheese. Use as a base for soups. Serve over sautéed fish, chicken fajitas or simply use as a hot yummy dip. It can be refrigerated and used the next day. Serve as a wonderfully rich Queso soup.

Texas Brew Shrimp Tostadas

1 cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
Tostadas (5 inch work best, alternative: fresh corn tortillas fried in oil)
2 lbs. grilled Texas shrimp (26-30 count, you be the judge)
1 batch Texas Brew Not Your Momma's Cole Slaw"
1 batch Texas Brew Cream Sauce or Chipotle Queso
Avocado chopped or sliced in wedges
Cilantro or Pico de Gallo for garnish
1 tsp. butter or olive oil (more if needed)
Lime wedges

Makes 6 to 10 tostadas.

Prepare one batch of Texas Brew Not Your Momma's Cole Slaw the day before. Do not mix dressing into slaw until 10 to 15 minutes prior to assembling your Tostadas.

Mix slaw and dressing about 10 to 15 minutes prior to assembling and refrigerate.

Prepare one batch of Texas Brew Queso keep warm until ready to assemble tostada Sautee shrimp (previously marinated for an hour in Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa) in butter or olive oil on medium-high heat until done, 1 minute each side. (Alternative: grill the shrimp on preheated grill misted with cooking oil 1-2 minutes each side. Brush with more Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa before turning).

Layer tostada with ample amounts of previously mixed Texas Brew Not Your Momma's Cole Slaw.

Place desired amount of shrimp on top of slaw (3 to 4, more if using smaller shrimp).

Sprinkle with chopped avocado or layer with avocado wedges.

Drizzle with desired amount of Texas Brew Cream Sauce (Can drizzle with a sauce made with Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa mixed with a good melted cheddar cheese spread, or an aged cheddar nacho sauce or your favorite Queso for an equally tasty topping).

Drizzle with more Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa (optional).

Garnish with cilantro or Pico de Gallo. Spritz some lime juice on each tostada. Enjoy!

Shrimp Baby Appetizers: Prepare and layer above ingredients on large round tortilla chips using one shrimp per chip and serve as a delightful appetizer.

Texas Brew Chicken Tortilla Soup

1 cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
4 quarts of water
4 large skinned split chicken breast or an equal amount of chicken tenders.
24 oz. tomatoes, diced (canned or fresh, excellent if using fresh to roast them the grill first)
10 oz. can tomatoes and green chilies
8 oz. can tomato sauce
1 large onion, chopped (excellent if sautéed until caramelized before adding to stock)
8 to 10 chicken bouillon cubes
3 Tbsp. cumin
1 bunch cilantro, rinsed, patted dry, fine chopped stems and all
1 Tbsp. fajita seasoning
¾ cup white rice (optional)

In a large stew pot add water, chicken, tomatoes and green chilies (mild, regular or hot), tomato sauce, diced tomatoes, chopped onion, bouillon cubes, cumin, fajita seasoning, and Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa. Bring to a boil and simmer till chicken is tender. Turn off heat and remove chicken to cool.

When chicken has cooled, cut up or tear into strips and add back into your stew pot. Add rice. Bring to a simmer and cook until rice is tender, approx. 20 minutes.

Assess if you need to add extra water (soup stock should not be thick). If more water is necessary add extra Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, cumin, fajita seasoning or bullion to taste and simmer approx. 5 more minutes.

Turn off heat and add chopped cilantro. The flavor of the cilantro is best when added last and left to wilt in the warm soup. Remove from heat and serve. Follow serving instructions below.

Suggestion: Serve soup hot with shredded cheese and tortilla chips. Dip or add chips to soup. Optional cheeses are: mild cheddar, Colby-Jack, or Mexican four cheeses packs which is an excellent option for a more authentic taste.

Texas Brew Pulled Pork & Baked Potato Soup

Prepare In Advance

- 1 cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
- 2 to 4 lbs. pork roast
- 2 to 3 large baking potatoes

Bake potatoes. Cool and store in plastic baggie in refrigerator overnight. Trim excess fat from pork roast. Slow cook in a large crock pot filled with water and 1 cup of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa. Cook roast until tender and falling apart. Remove pork roast from crock pot and put aside to cool. Pull pork into strips. Refrigerate soup stock and pulled pork in separate sealed containers overnight or until you are ready to make soup.

Prepare Soup

All sautéed items can be cooked in advance. Each item should be lightly sprinkled with fajita seasoning and sautéed in 1 tsp. of olive oil one at a time before being added to soup stock (except for the tomatoes which have their own juice). Dice potatoes before sautéing.

- 1 cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
- 1 Tbsp. fajita seasoning
- 1 tsp. kosher salt
- 1 cup of chopped fresh cilantro (optional)
- 1 cup of sautéed until caramelized chopped onions
- 1 to 2 cups of blackened chopped poblano peppers (remove stems, slice into flat pieces and grill or broil until dark. Do not remove darkened skin as it flavors the soup)
- 2 cups diced and sautéed tomatoes. Roma or vine ripe tomatoes are best (in a pinch, substitute canned diced tomatoes. Drain well before sautéing)
- 2 to 3 cups large diced sautéed baked potatoes with skin
- 1 cup of rinsed, drained, finely chopped and sautéed nopalitos (cactus) use fresh or canned – if using canned, drain, rinse and drain again in order to remove excess vinegar. Press as much water out as you can before sautéing. Sauté until lightly browned
- 4 cloves of garlic pressed and sautéed

Remove the congealed fat from the top of the refrigerated soup stock. Pour stock into a kettle or crock pot. Add 1 Tbsp. of fajita seasoning, 1 tsp. salt and 1 cup of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa.

Add previously diced and sautéed vegetables. Remove pulled pork from refrigerator. Add 4 to 6 cups of pulled pork to soup stock. Bring soup to a simmer for 10 to 30 minutes. Add chopped cilantro and serve. Wonderful served with warm buttered tortillas or cornbread.

Texas Brew Roasted Chipotle Wrap

- 2 Tbsp. Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
- 1 - 12 inch wrap or tortilla
- ½ cup Texas Brew Not Your Mommas Cole Slaw mixed 15 minutes prior to making wrap
- 1 Tbsp. Texas Brew Honey Roasted Spread/Dip
- 3 slices sliced deli meat (chicken, turkey, roast beef, pastrami, or cut up rotisserie chicken)
- 3 cheese slices (havarti, pepper jack, provolone, muenster, co-jack or Monterrey jack)
- 3 to 4 thin avocado slices
- 1 Tbsp. red onion, chopped
- 1 fresh lime

Place wrap/tortilla on flat surface. Spread Texas Brew Honey Roasted Spread/Dip in the center of the wrap. Do not spread all the way to the edge. Leave a couple inches on the right and left side for folding.

Spread Medium Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa on top of the dip. Spread on ½ cup of Texas Brew Not Your Mommas Cole Slaw. Sprinkle on chopped onions. Lay on avocado slices, cheese slices and deli meat respectively. Spritz with fresh lime.

Fold in the edge of the wrap/tortilla on the right and left sides. Pull up the uncovered portion of the wrap/tortilla closest to you and roll over while gently pulling the ingredients toward you as you fold the uncovered flap. Keep pulling and turning until you have folded the wrap completely and the upper uncovered portion is resting on the bottom.

Slice the wrap in the middle on the diagonal. Secure with a gourmet toothpick and serve with chips, sweet pickles and/or olives. You may use an olive as garnish when securing the wrap.

Note: Do not overstuff as it will be hard to roll the wrap.

Suggestion: Bacon crumbs are good with roasted chicken or turkey. Use your favorite meat or make a veggie wrap. For ease and practicality toss spinach leaves or pre-made Cole slaw mix with Texas Brew Not Your Mommas Cole Slaw dressing.

Texas Brew Poblano Chicken Delight

2 Tbsp. Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
8 boneless, skinless, thawed bagged pre-frozen breast halves
6 to 8 poblano peppers
8 cups mushrooms, thinly sliced (add exotic mushrooms such as porcini or shiitake if possible)
1 - 16 ounce bag Mexican blend or mozzarella shredded cheese
1 cup sour cream
3 Tbsp. extra virgin olive oil
1 cup onion, finely chopped
Fajita seasoning

Prepare Chicken

Grill chicken breasts with your favorite mesquite or fajita seasoning until almost done. Put aside in a 13×9 baking dish. Do not overcook or chicken will be dry after baking.

Poblano Cream Topping

Remove stems/seeds from peppers and slice into large flat strips. Broil or grill until outer skin is blackened (do not remove blackened skin). Remove from heat; cool, cut into bite size strips and put aside.

Heat oil in a heavy skillet. Add onions. Sprinkle with fajita seasoning and sauté until soft and caramelized. Add mushrooms and cook until soft. Add grilled peppers and stir well. Remove mixture from heat and let cool for 2 minutes. Add sour cream gradually, stirring constantly.

Prepare For Baking

Spoon a generous covering of the poblano cream topping on each grilled chicken breast. Spread 2 Tbsp. of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa on top of the poblano mixture. Cover each breast with a thick layer of shredded cheese. Place in a 375° oven for approx. 10 minutes or until done. Remove from oven.

Serve with guacamole, sour cream, cilantro, tortillas, Spanish rice, beans and more Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa to taste.

Note: The poblano pepper cream topping is excellent served on nachos, alone as a snack on tortillas or on chicken or beef fajitas.

Texas Brew Picadillo

½ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Medium
1 to 1½ lbs. Lean ground beef
1 small onion, diced
1 garlic clove, pressed
2 tsp. cumin powder
2 tsp. chili powder
2 tsp. chipotle chili powder (roasted chipotle powder is best)
½ tsp. paprika (smoked paprika is best)
½ tsp. Mexican oregano
½ tsp. kosher or sea salt
1 can fire roasted diced tomatoes
2 medium baked potatoes, peeled and cubed (optional, see below)
1 large roasted poblano chile, diced (don't remove the roasted skins)

1. Cook beef, onions, garlic, cumin, chili powders, paprika, oregano & salt in a large skillet over medium heat-high heat, stirring occasionally for 5 to 6 minutes until beef is browned and onions are translucent.
2. Stir in fire roasted tomatoes and Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa.
3. Add roasted poblano peppers and diced baked potatoes. Mix well.
4. Simmer on low for approximately 30 minutes. You may add up to ¼ cup of water if needed.

Makes approximately 1 quart depending on size of onions and potatoes.

Serve by itself or as a filling great for tamales, tacos, gorditas or empanadas; also serves as a topping great for rice or tostadas. Add other vegetables such as corn or black beans for an even heartier dish.

Optional-Potatoes

In a large pan, cook diced potatoes in oil over medium heat. When potatoes have softened and browned, fold into beef mixture according to recipe.

Baked potatoes diced with skins add an even more unique flavor or sauté diced baked potatoes prior to adding them to the picadillo.

Texas Brew Cheesy Meatloaf & Cream Sauce

1 cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
1½ lbs. ground beef (leaner is better)
½ cup onion, finely chopped
1 large egg, beaten
1 cup quick oats or dry bread crumbs (I use oats)
4 havarti cheese slices (cheese of your choice such as pepper jack, Monterey jack, co-jack)
6 to 8 half slices of fried and blotted bacon (excellent way to portion slices, optional)
Texas Brew Cream Sauce (optional)

Pre heat oven to 350°. Combine all ingredients except bacon in a large bowl and mix well.

Place mixture in an ungreased loaf pan or shape into a loaf in an ungreased baking pan. Bake uncovered for 1 hour or until no pink remains at the center of the meatloaf. If using a meat thermometer, the internal temp of the meatloaf should be 160° for optimum safety. Remove from pan and put on oven-proof plate. Layer overlapping cheese slices on top of meatloaf. Place back in warm oven until cheese melts.

Remove from oven and drizzle liberally with Texas Brew Cream Sauce. Lay bacon slices (or crumble bacon and sprinkle) on top of melted cheese and serve with mashed potatoes or rice of your choice, grilled asparagus or frozen green beans seasoned with a no salt seasoning and stir fried in olive oil. Fresh sliced tomatoes make a fine accompaniment.

Suggestions:

Hamburgers - Reduce oats or bread crumbs to ½ cup. Shape mixture into hamburgers. Grill until done. Drizzle with the Texas Brew Cream Sauce. Add your favorite cheese and melt. Serve on a grilled bun with your favorite condiments. Add sautéed onions, mushrooms, or bacon for a bit of extra oomph!

Meatballs - Reduce oats or bread crumbs to ½ cup. Shape into meatballs and brown in a flat skillet. Add half salsa and water to cover. Cook till done. Transfer meatballs to a Crockpot. Add cheddar nacho sauce or a good aged cheddar cheese spread to taste to the remaining liquid. Simmer on low till cheese is melted while stirring gently. When cheese has melted add to meatballs. Simmer approximately 30 minutes or until gravy is at desired thickness. You may add more water or Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa when gravy needs to be thinned.

Texas Brew Beef & Pork Chipotle Chili With Beans

1 cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
¼ cup extra-virgin olive oil
2 lbs. ground beef (leaner is better)
1 lb. ground pork
1 cup chopped onion
3 garlic cloves (chopped/pressed)
2 Tbsp. pure ground chili powder
½ - 1 tsp. chipotle powder (more if you like it spicy)
2 Tbsp. ground cumin
1 tsp. dried oregano
1 tsp. paprika
1 - 28 oz. can crushed tomatoes
2 cups good quality beef broth
1 cup dark beer
3 Tbsp. tomato paste
Salt and pepper to taste
3 Tbsp. masa harina (Mexican-style cornmeal or stone ground corn meal)
1 - 15 oz. can or red kidney beans (optional or can substitute with chili beans or pinto beans)

Garnishes: Tomato Salsa, sour cream, shredded cheddar or Jack cheese, chopped sweet onion, sliced avocado, chopped fresh cilantro, or corn chips.

Heat a large, heavy skillet over medium-high heat. Add half of the olive oil. When the oil is hot, add the beef and pork in batches if necessary to avoid overcrowding. Sauté, stirring and breaking up the meat into small chunks with a wooden spoon, until evenly browned, about 10 minutes per batch. Before adding another batch, pour off liquid and fat from the pan. With a slotted spoon, transfer meat to a bowl. Set aside.

Over medium heat, in a large, heavy casserole or Dutch oven, heat the remaining olive oil. Add onion, garlic, chipotle and chili powder, cumin, oregano and paprika. Sauté until the onion is tender, about 5 minutes. Stir in meat and juices that have collected in the bowl, along with the Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, tomatoes, beef broth, beer, and tomato paste. Bring mixture to a simmer, cover; reduce heat to low. Cook until very fragrant and thick, about 2 to 3 hours, stirring often.

Put the masa harina in a small mixing bowl. With a ladle, scoop up about ½ cup of liquid from the pot. Add liquid to the masa harina. Stir with a fork until smooth and free of lumps. Stir mixture into the chili pot along with the beans. Continue to cook, stirring frequently, until the chili's liquid has thickened and beans are heated through, about 10 minutes. Meanwhile, arrange the garnishes in separate bowls on the table. Season to taste with salt and pepper. Ladle into individual serving bowls. Garnish according to taste.

Texas Beer Braised Short Ribs

2 cups Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
2½ - 3 lbs. beef short ribs (I have all so used braised chicken breast or pork ribs)
¼ cup – ½ cup oil
¼ cup butter
4 pieces celery, large dice
2 large carrots, med. dice
4 garlic cloves, halved
½ small can of tomato paste
1 bottle brown ale beer
Salt, pepper, garlic powder

Season short ribs with garlic powder, salt and pepper. Sear in a Dutch oven on high heat in oil on all sides. Remove Short Ribs to a cookie sheet and smear tomato paste liberally on each one. Broil in oven under broiler until tomato paste begins to brown and caramelize, 5-8 minutes. While sautéing vegetables, keep a close eye on ribs to prevent burning.

Empty Dutch oven of oil and any burnt specks. Place back on stove and melt butter on med. heat. Add the vegetables and sauté lightly. When the ribs are done place directly into the pan with the vegetables.

Add bottle of brown ale beer and 2 cups of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild. Cover the Dutch oven with lid and roast about at 300^o - 350^o for 2½ to 3 hrs. Serve with White Cheddar Polenta.

Note: I have served Beer Braised Ribs over Spanish rice, Wild Rice or Rice Pilaf.

White Cheddar Polenta

2 seeded jalapenos, finely chopped
6 oz. shredded extra sharp white cheddar
1 2/3 cup stone ground cornmeal
7 cups water or chicken stock (I prefer chicken)
1 Tbsp. salt (I prefer kosher)
2 Tbsp. butter
¼ cup cream

Basic Polenta Recipe

Bring the water to a boil in a large saucepan over medium-high heat. Add salt. Add the cornmeal in a very thin stream. You should be able to see the individual grains spilling into the pot. As you are adding the cornmeal, stir it with a whisk, making sure the water is always boiling.

When you have added all the cornmeal, begin to stir with a wooden spoon. Stir continuously, for 30 to 45 minutes (who needs to go to the gym) bringing the mixture up from the bottom of the pot and loosening it from the sides.

The cornmeal becomes polenta in 35-45 minutes, when it forms a mass that pulls cleanly away from the sides of the pot. Stir in butter, cream, shredded cheese, and jalapenos. Serve with Beer Braised Short Ribs and Gravy.

Texas Brew Smoked Beef Brisket

1 - 5 lb. brisket
1 recipe rib rub
1 recipe Brew Crew Mop (double if you want plenty)

Brisket Rub

1 Tbsp. ground cumin
1 Tbsp. chili powder
1 Tbsp. kosher salt
1 Tbsp. freshly ground pepper
1 Tbsp. oregano
2 tsp. garlic powder

Brew Crew Mop

1 cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
1 cup ketchup
½ cup bourbon (optional)
¼ cup apple cider vinegar
1 Tbsp. hot pepper sauce

Combine rub and mop recipes ingredients separately and store for future use. Be sure and store mop recipe in the refrigerator.

1. Mix ingredients for rub together. Coat brisket on all sides, while patting firmly into the meat. Wrap well and refrigerate overnight. Remove from refrigerator and bring to room temperature.
2. Prepare smoker.
3. Brush brisket with mop and cook 3 hours at 250^o.
4. Brush again with mop and cook another 3 hours or until internal temperature reaches 190^o
5. Slice thin and serve with additional mop on the side.

Serve with Texas Brew Red Slaw, baked beans, potato salad or your favorite side dish.

Note: This recipe can be prepared in the oven. Just add 2 tablespoons of liquid smoke to the mop.

Recipe by Paul Hostetter, Head Cook, Texas Brew Products Barbeque Team, www.texasbrewsalsa.com

Texas Brew Fried Spanish Rice

1 cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
2 cups white rice (I use parboiled)
2½ cups water
1 - 14 to 16 oz. can of petite diced tomatoes
4 chicken bouillon cubes
¼ cup water
1 small onion, chopped
1 Tbsp. ground cumin
1 cup chopped fresh cilantro
1 Tbsp. olive oil

1. Heat ¼ cup of water in a kettle big enough to cook rice. Add bouillon cubes and let dissolve. Keep water warm.
2. Chop cilantro and onions. Set aside.
3. In a large pitcher, mix 2½ cups very hot water, diced tomatoes and Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa. Set aside. You can mix in a kettle and keep good and warm.
4. In a large skillet, heat olive oil. Add rice, onions and cumin. Stir, turning rice until a large portion of the rice becomes a toasty brown. Do not overcook until dark brown.
5. Turn up heat under the bouillon and water until it simmers. Add browned rice. Pour in hot tomato, water and salsa liquid.
6. Sprinkle cilantro on top. Bring to a boil. Cover and simmer for approximately 20 minutes or until all liquid has absorbed. Turn off heat. Let rest for about 10 minutes. Serve.

Note: Simmering a whole jalapeno or Serrano pepper in the rice will add a bit more spice. You can also add finely chopped fresh tomatoes on top long with the cilantro.

Serve with Texas Brew Fajitas, Shrimp and Crab Stuffed Poblano Peppers, Pork Carnitas, or your favorite Mexican meal.

Texas Brew Pork Carnitas

½ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
3½ to 4 lbs. pork butt, cut into large chunks (1 inch)
2 cloves garlic, minced
¼ cup red wine
2 cups fresh orange juice
1½ tsp. kosher or sea salt
½ cup of chopped fresh cilantro
1 bay leaf
1 cup milk
¼ cup coke

1. Cut pork into large chunks (remove some of the fat) and place in a large frying pan or stock pot. Add the garlic, wine, orange juice, salt, Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, cilantro and bay leaf. Add water if needed to cover most of the pork.
2. Stir ingredients and place on high heat. Bring to a boil then reduce heat to low, partially cover and simmer for 2 to 2½ hours or till pork becomes very tender and easy to break apart. Keep a watch on the liquid making sure it doesn't boil completely away. Add more water if needed.
3. Once pork is tender and falling apart, add milk and continue to simmer for about 20 minutes or until the liquid cooks down to half.
4. Add coke. Bring to a boil. Lower heat to simmer Cook an additional 15 minutes.
5. Remove bay leaf and spoon pork into a roasting pan. Shred the pork with a couple forks and spread meat out in a thin layer. Set sauce aside and keep warm.
6. Bake shredded pork at 425° for 15 to 20 minutes until meat browns and becomes crispy.
7. Pour sauce back over the Carnitas or use as a gravy.

Serve in warm corn or flour tortillas with your favorite garnish such as more Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Pico De Gallo, guacamole, all topped with fresh cilantro and a spritz of fresh lime.

Taco-Stuffed Upside Down Cornbread

½ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild

1 lb. ground beef

1 cup water

1 - 4 ounce can whole green chilies

1 large plum tomato, cut into 7 round slices

2 - 8½ ounce packages cornbread mix

1 - 15 ounce can cream-style corn

1 cup water

2 large eggs

2 cups shredded cheddar cheese

Garnish: Texas Brew Salsa and sour cream

1. Preheat oven to 425°.
2. Heavily grease 11-inch oven-proof, non-stick skillet.
3. Brown beef; drain. Stir in water and Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa; bring to a boil.
4. Reduce heat to low, stirring occasionally, for 5 to 6 minutes or until mixture is thickened.
5. Spread chilies apart and slice each chili lengthwise in half. Place chilies rib side up in starburst pattern in prepared skillet.
6. Place tomato slices in circle between each chili tip; place one tomato slice in center of pan.
7. Combine cornbread mix, corn, water and eggs in large bowl; stir well. Spread half of batter on top of chilies and tomatoes; top with ground beef and cheese. Spread remaining batter over cheese.
8. Bake for 35 to 40 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in cornbread comes out clean. Immediately invert skillet onto serving platter.

Garnish as desired. Serve with Texas Brew Refried Beans.

Texas Brew Bacon Macaroni & Cheese

½ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Medium

3 slices of bacon

12 ounces of large elbow macaroni

1 small onion chopped

1 clove of minced garlic

1½ cups grated Velveeta cheese

1½ cups grated havarti cheese

2 Tbsp. butter

3 Tbsp. all purpose flour

1½ cups milk

1. Preheat oven to 350°. Cook bacon until crispy. Drain and crumble.
2. In a large pot cook pasta to al dente (firm but not hard) and drain.
3. In a medium skillet sauté onion and garlic in a small amount of vegetable oil. Remove from heat, add bacon and set aside.
4. In a medium saucepan melt butter over low heat. Add flour and stir for 2 minutes.
5. Gradually add milk and stir until thickened. Add half of each of the cheeses and stir until melted. Put together the pasta, sautéed vegetables, cheese sauce and salsa.
6. Pour into casserole dish and top with remaining cheeses.
7. Bake for 15 to 20 minutes until cheese on top is melted.

Texas Brew Chicken Enchiladas with Creamy Salsa Sauce

¾ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Medium or Hot
3 Tbsp. butter
3 Tbsp. all-purpose flour
1½ cups chicken broth
1 cup sour cream
Salt and pepper to taste
8 large corn tortillas
8 to 12 oz. of pre-cooked chicken fajita meat, shredded or cubed
4 oz. can green chilies, drained
16 oz. Mexican cheese blend, I prefer all white blend
Black olives, sliced (optional garnish)
Green onions, chopped (optional garnish)
Cilantro, chopped (optional garnish)
Pico de Gallo (optional garnish)

Pre-heat oven to 350^o

Chicken

Thaw pre-cooked fajita meat. Sauté in a sauce pan with 2 Tbsp. of salsa to soften. This makes it easier to shred.

Sauce

Melt butter in a medium sauce pan. Add flour and stir until bubbly. Add broth, salt and pepper taste. Stir until mixture boils and thickens, about 2 minutes. Stir in the ¾ cup of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa. Remove from heat and slowly stir in the sour cream. Mix well.

Assembly

Cover bottom of a 9x13 baking dish with 1/3 of the sauce. Lay a tortilla on a flat surface and add about 2 Tbsp. of chicken, 1 Tbsp. sauce, 1 tsp. of green chilies and 2 Tbsp. of cheese.

Roll up and place seam side down in the baking dish on top of the sauce. Repeat with the remaining tortillas. Pour remaining sauce all over, and sprinkle with remaining cheese. Cover and bake for 30 minutes. Uncover and bake until bubbly, additional 10 minutes. Let stand for 10 minutes before serving. Garnish with the olives, cilantro, green onions and/or Pico de Gallo.

Serve with Texas Brew Refried Beans and Texas Brew Fried Spanish Rice. Top each serving with extra salsa.

Texas Brew Peach Pulled Pork

1 jar (16 Oz.) Texas Brew Honey Roasted Peach Salsa
1 Pork Butt (boneless or bone-in)
1 can of soda of choice (or 2 depending on the size of the butt)
1 large bottle of your favorite original (less sweet) barbecue sauce

1. Place pork butt and soda in a large crock pot.
2. Cook 4-6 hours on high.
3. Pour out all of the liquid (soda and fat).
4. Remove bone if present.
5. With a fork shred pork inside the crock pot. The meat should easily pull apart and shred.
6. Replace liquid with 1 jar (16 oz.) of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Peach Salsa and barbecue sauce.
7. Replace lid, and cook an additional 1-2 hours.

Serve on Hawaiian rolls, Kaiser rolls. Top nachos or inside quesadillas.

Texas Brew Crab Cakes

With Texas Brew Salsa Remoulade

Crab Cakes

3 Tbsp. Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Hot
1 lb. lump crab meat or lump claw meat (Phillips Is Best)
1/3 cup mayonnaise
2 tsp. old bay seasoning
1 Tbsp. Dijon mustard
1 Tbsp. chopped fresh parsley
1 egg white
½ cup Panko bread crumbs (can substitute 12 saltine crackers, crushed)

1. Pick over the crab meat and remove any shell or cartilage. Drain any liquid.
2. Combine mayonnaise, salsa, Old Bay, parsley, mustard, egg white; Mix till smooth.
3. Add this mixture to the crab meat, being careful not to break up the lumps of crab meat.
4. Add Panko bread crumbs or crushed crackers to crab mixture, being careful not to break up lumps of crab meat. Let crab cake mixture rest for 10 to 15 minutes.
5. Form into small ¼ to ½ inch thick sausage size patties, making sure edges are flat.
6. Pan fry in peanut oil until golden brown on both sides. Do not over crowd your pan when frying. Leave enough room to turn carefully in order to avoid breaking.

Tips: If your crab cakes are too moist to shape into patties, add more bread crumbs or crushed crackers a little at a time until a meatloaf like consistency is achieved.

Texas Brew Salsa Remoulade

3 Tbsp. Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Hot
½ cup chopped red pepper
¼ cup chopped celery
¼ cup chopped green onions
¾ cup mayonnaise
2 Tbsp. Dijon mustard
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
1 tsp. horseradish

Puree in a food processor or blender until smooth. Chill. Serve Texas Brew Crab Cake with a dollop Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa Remoulade.

Tips: Serve Texas Brew Salsa Remoulade in the place of cocktail sauce when eating pre-cooked and peeled shrimp. To spice up just add 1 Tablespoon. of Cajun seasoning. Excellent as a chip dip.

Texas Brew Corn Pudding

¾ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Medium or Hot
2 Tbsp. olive oil
2 cups of fresh, frozen, or canned corn (fresh or frozen is best)
1 tsp. sea salt
6 slices of bacon, chopped
½ cup diced red onion
½ cup diced green bell pepper
½ cup diced red bell pepper
2 cups heavy cream
1 cup milk
4 eggs
½ tsp. nutmeg
½ cup parmesan cheese
½ cup corn meal
4 Tbsp. Panko bread crumbs

1. Preheat oven to 375°.
2. Butter sides and bottoms of an 8x8x2 casserole dish.
3. Sprinkle bread crumbs and coat sides and bottom of dish.

Note: If using fresh corn, slice corn from cobs and scrape cobs with knife over a large bowl to release milk.

1. Heat olive oil in a large heavy skillet over medium high heat.
2. Add corn and salt. Sauté for 3 minutes.
3. Add bacon and continue sauté until bacon is crisp.
4. Add bell peppers and onions and cook until just tender.
5. Remove from heat.

In a large bowl combine cream, milk, Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, eggs and remaining seasonings until frothy. Add parmesan cheese and mix well. Pour into casserole and bake for one hour.

Texas Brew Fajitas

1 skirt steak (about 2 ½ lbs)

Marinade

1 cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
2 tsp. mesquite smoke seasoning
2 tsp. fajita seasoning

1. Trim steak of excess fat and membrane.
2. Prepare marinade by mixing salsa, mesquite seasoning and fajita seasoning.
3. Marinade steak for 3 to 4 hours or overnight, longer is better.
4. Grill over high heat to desired doneness.
5. Slice thinly across the grain and serve on flour tortillas with guacamole and a bowl of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa.

Note: You may sauté onion, bell pepper or poblano pepper in some olive oil with a bit of fajita seasoning to use as a garnish. Pico De Gallo, sour cream and fresh chopped cilantro are excellent toppings as well.

Texas Brew Crazy Chicken

4 boneless, skinless chicken breast

Marinade

¾ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
Juice of 1 lemon
Juice of 1 orange
2 Tbsp. apple cider vinegar or white vinegar
1 tsp. Worcestershire sauce
2 tsp. sugar
2 tsp. garlic powder
2 Tbsp. vegetable oil (I use olive)
Tabasco sauce to taste

Mix all marinade ingredients together in a small bowl. Place chicken in a baking dish and cover with marinade. Let marinade 4 to 24 hours, the longer the better. Grill over indirect medium heat for about 10 minutes on each side or until internal temperature is 165° or juices run clear. Serve with tortillas and Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa.

Additional Serving Options: Shred chicken after grilling. Mix with extra marinade. Add a ½ cup of drained and chopped green chilies. Mix well. Use as a stuffing for enchiladas, flautas, taquitos, or as a topping on tostadas.

Texas Brew Chipotle Fajita Salad for One

Lots of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild

4 cups chopped romaine lettuce (options; baby spinach or spring mix)

1 to 2 cups grilled chicken fajita meat (pre-seasoned or season and grill your own)

Desired amount of shredded cheese (options; Mexican, co-jack, cheddar, pepper-jack)

1 or 2 chopped hard boiled eggs

½ to 1 cup of chopped avocado

4 to 6 finely chopped baby carrots

A dollop of sour cream

Layer salad respectively, adding salsa right before the sour cream and enjoy. Practically carb free when not using chips.

Note: You may also serve this salad in a preformed taco salad bowl. Eliminate boiled eggs and carrots. Layer taco bowl with refried beans, Spanish/Mexican rice, fajita meat, guacamole, sour cream, shredded lettuce, diced tomatoes, shredded cheese and chopped cilantro, respectively. Top with Texas Brew Honey Roasted Salsa. Green onions and sliced black olives are delightful additions as well. Your imagination is your only limitation.

Texas Brew Chipotle Chocolate Bundt Cake (with Cherry Chipotle Chocolate Icing Glaze)

4 Tbsp. Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild, pureed

1 box devil's food chocolate cake mix

1 package, 4 – serving size chocolate instant pudding and pie filling

¼ to ½ tsp. chipotle chili powder (optional)

4 large eggs

1 cup water

½ cup oil

Preheat oven to 350° for metal or glass pans, 325° for dark or coated pans. Grease each pan with shortening or oil spray. Flour lightly.

Blend dry cake mix, pudding, pureed salsa, chipotle chili powder, eggs, water and oil in a large bowl low speed for 1 minute and at medium speed for 2 minutes. Pour into a Bundt cake pan and bake 45 minutes or until a toothpick comes out clear. Cool in pan 25 minutes. Invert onto a heat resistant plate or cake platter.

Cover cake with a thick coat of icing glaze. Garnish with chocolate flakes. Cut and serve cake slices topped with a scoop of vanilla bean ice cream, whipped cream and cherries. Heat a spoon or two of icing glaze and drizzle.

Cherry Chipotle Chocolate Icing Glaze

1- 16 oz. readymade whipped chocolate icing

OR – 1 dry icing mix, substitute cherry juice for water

1 to 3 Tbsp. chipotles in adobo sauce, peppers only, seeded & pureed, not blended

6 cherries, pureed (canned cherries packed in water, not syrup)

2 Tbsp. cherry juice (add more or less cherry juice to create your desired consistency)

*Adding peppers, cherries and juice makes a thick glaze and not a stiff icing

Remove stems and seeds from chipotles in adobo sauce. Puree chipotles and cherries. Fold cherry juice, pureed chipotles and cherries into icing. You can make your own homemade or use a dry mix if you prefer. If using a dry mix, you can substitute cherry juice for water. Makes a thick glaze you can drizzle over your cake. You may refrigerate icing to thicken if needed.

Fire & Ice Chipotle Lava Cupcakes

Fill cupcake tin 1/3 full with cake batter; add a drop of icing or a piece of chocolate espresso candy bar. Fill cupcake ¾ full with more batter. Bake 15 minutes or till edges of cupcakes are firm to touch. Do not over bake. Cool for 5 minutes. Place baking sheet on top of cupcakes and invert. Use a spatula to pick up and invert cupcakes onto desert plates. Cut open. Fill with a scoop of ice cream. Top with whipped cream and drizzle with heated icing or your favorite chocolate sauce. Add a cherry or two.

Texas Brew Sweet & Spicy Three Bean Soup

½ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild or Medium

1 can black beans (drained)

1 can pinto beans (drained)

1 can ranch style beans (drained)

1 can diced fire roasted tomatoes with garlic (drained)

1 tsp. cumin

1 tsp. chili powder

1 cup yellow onion diced

½ cup tortilla chips crushed

3 cups low sodium chicken broth

Olive oil

Kosher salt

Fresh cilantro, heavy chop

1 cup small cubed/pulled rotisserie or grilled chicken (optional)

1. Sauté onion in olive oil until translucent in a heavy pot or Dutch oven.
2. Add cumin, chili powder and chips. Sauté for 2 more minutes. You may add more olive oil to sauté chips if needed.
3. Add Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, all beans, tomatoes, chicken (if using) and chicken stock.
4. Salt lightly to taste. Cover and gently simmer for 30 to 45 minutes depending on desired bean tenderness.
5. Serve over buttered cornbread or top with tortilla chips and shredded cheddar, Monterey jack or a Mexican blend.

Garnish Suggestions: Chopped cilantro, avocado slices, sour cream or Pico de Gallo.

Texas Brew Shrimp Stuffed Avocado With Cilantro Mayo

Serves 4

1 cup + 2 tablespoons, divided of Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild

½ lb. shrimp (any size), peeled and cooked

½ cup mayonnaise

1 Tbsp. heavy cream

Juice of ½ lime

¼ cup chopped fresh cilantro, plus a few whole leaves for garnish

Salt and pepper to taste

2 avocados, pitted, peeled and halved

1. Place the shrimp and ½ of the Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa in a medium bowl. Mix together until the shrimp is well coated with the salsa. Place covered in the refrigerator to chill for at least a couple of hours (overnight is great).
2. Whisk together the mayonnaise, heavy cream, lime juice, cilantro and salt and pepper to taste in a small bowl, can be made ahead of time if you wish.
3. When you're ready to serve, cut a small sliver from the bottom of each avocado half so that they will sit straight on a plate.
4. Place them on individual appetizer plates. Fill the avocado halves with shrimp, top with a spoonful of cilantro mayonnaise and then a spoonful of salsa. Garnish with cilantro leaves and serve.

Suggestion: Follow previous instruction and use tiny salad or cocktail shrimp. Chop avocado into very small chunks or mash like guacamole. Cover the bottom of a Tostitos Scoop. Add cilantro mayonnaise, a marinated shrimp, a whole cilantro leaf or two and some Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa.

Makes a delightful quick and easy appetizer.

Texas Brew Taco-Stuffed Upside Down Cornbread

½ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
1lb. ground beef
1 cup water
1 - 4 ounce can whole green chilies
1 large plum tomato, cut into 7 round slices
2 - 8½ ounce packages cornbread mix
1 - 15 ounce can cream-style corn
1 cup water
2 large eggs
2 cups shredded cheddar cheese

Garnish: Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa and sour cream

1. Preheat oven to 425°F. Heavily grease 11-inch oven-proof, non-stick skillet.
2. Brown beef; drain. Stir in water and Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa; bring to a boil. Reduce heat to low, stirring occasionally, for 5 to 6 minutes or until mixture is thickened.
3. Spread chilies apart and slice each chili lengthwise in half. Place chilies rib side up in starburst pattern in prepared skillet. Place tomato slices in circle between each chili tip; place one tomato slice in center of pan.
4. Combine cornbread mix, corn, water and eggs in large bowl; stir well. Spread half of batter on top of chilies and tomatoes; top with ground beef and cheese. Spread remaining batter over cheese.
5. Bake for 35 to 40 minutes or until wooden pick inserted in cornbread comes out clean. Immediately invert skillet onto serving platter. Garnish as desired.

Texas Brew Bacon Wrapped Stuffed Meatloaf

¼ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Salsa, Mild
1 lb. lean ground beef
¾ cup bread crumbs
1 large egg
⅛ tsp. pepper
1 lb. center cut bacon

Filling

1 - 10 oz. package frozen chopped spinach, defrosted, well drained
½ cup shredded mozzarella cheese
3 tsp. parmesan cheese
¼ tsp. salt
1 tsp. garlic powder

1. Pre heat oven to 350°. In medium bowl, combine filling ingredients and mix well. Combine ingredients for the meatloaf. Mix thoroughly.
2. Place meat mixture in a 1 gallon Ziploc bag and roll out to fill the bag. Slice down both sides of the Ziploc bag to expose meat mixture. Spread the filling over beef and all but ¾" around edges. Starting at short end roll up jelly-roll method.
3. Arrange bacon in a latticed crisscross pattern.
4. Put the beef mixture diagonally across the bacon lattice and roll, tucking bacon as it is rolled up.
5. Place wrapped meatloaf on a sheet pan with bacon seam side down and bake for 1 hour @ 350°.

Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa Risotto

1 cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild
2 cups chicken broth
2 cups water
2 Tbsp. butter
¼ cups Arborio rice (risotto)
1 cup parmesan cheese, shredded
2 chicken breast (roasted or grilled) sliced

1. Melt the butter in a medium sauce. Add risotto and sauté until rice starts to brown.
2. While waiting on the rice to brown combine the chicken broth, water, and salsa in a sauce pan (or in a microwavable container) on medium high heat and bring to a boil (or heat in the microwave).
3. Add the liquid, one ladle at a time, to the rice, stirring after each addition until the liquid is absorbed by the rice.
4. Keep the liquid mixture at a simmer (or by periodically reheating in the microwave).
5. When all of the liquid is absorbed, the risotto should be soft with a small “chew” to the center.
6. Take the saucepan off the heat and stir in the Parmesan. Serve risotto on a deep plate or in shallow bowl. Lay chicken slices over the risotto and serve immediately.

Suggestion: Slice and sauté chicken breast in a tablespoon or two of salsa. Pat dry and cube. If using grilled chicken or precooked fajita meat, sauté in salsa to soften, pat dry, cube and add to recipe.

Texas Brew San Antonio Salsa Bake

2 cups Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Medium
1 lb. lean ground beef
1 medium onion finely chopped
3 cloves garlic chopped
1 pkg. of taco seasoning
 $\frac{3}{4}$ cup water
 $\frac{1}{2}$ container (15oz) part-skim ricotta cheese
1 egg, beaten
 $\frac{1}{3}$ cup grated parmesan cheese
2 cups shredded Mexican Cheese Blend
1 pkg. of crispy Chalupas/ taco shells / tortilla chips/ corn tortillas
 $\frac{1}{2}$ cup can black beans (rinsed & drained)
 $\frac{1}{4}$ cup sliced black olives
2 Tbsp. chopped cilantro
Serve with shredded lettuce sour cream, diced tomatoes, chopped green onions guacamole or diced avocado, and salsa as desired.

Pre-heat the oven to 350°.

Blend together Cheese Filling ingredients: beat the egg and mix in Ricotta Cheese, 2 oz. of the Texas Brew Salsa, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup shredded cheese blend, and $\frac{1}{3}$ cup grated parmesan cheese together in a medium bowl then set aside.

Brown the ground beef in a large skillet over medium high heat. After about 5 minutes of cooking the beef, add finely chopped onions, cilantro and garlic. Cook until beef is brown and onions are translucent, Stir in water, Taco Seasoning, rest of Texas Brew Salsa, drained black beans, $\frac{1}{4}$ cup olives and cook over medium heat for 5 minutes stir well, also set aside.

Place the crispy Chalupas, taco shells, corn tortillas or chips in the bottom of a 9x13 inch casserole dish as the first layer.

Cover evenly with $\frac{1}{2}$ of the meat sauce. Spread the cheese filling mixture over the evenly distributed meat sauce. Sprinkle $\frac{1}{2}$ cup of shredded Mexican Cheese Blend over the cheese filling. Top this with more tortillas or crispy chips, add rest of meat sauce and sprinkle the remaining 1 cup of shredded cheese over the top. Sprinkle chopped green onions over the cheese (Optional).

Cover with foil. Bake at 350° for 30 minutes. Remove the foil and as needed bake until cheese has melted. Let the casserole stand for 5 minutes before cutting.

To serve, cut into squares and remove with a spatula. Garnish each serving with shredded lettuce, tomatoes, green onions, avocado/guacamole, salsa or sour cream as desired.

Texas Brew Crab & Shrimp Stuffed Poblano Peppers

4 to 6 medium roasted poblano peppers

What to buy: Look for poblano peppers that are all about the same size; cooking time and portions will be more consistent. Poblano peppers with curved stems have been purported to be hotter as they have been on the vine longer. The straighter the stem, the milder the pepper. You be the judge.

Using Less Poblanos: You can use less peppers (3 to 4) if you want a lot of stuffing in each. I prefer to use more peppers in order to get more poblano pepper taste.

Before Roasting Peppers: slice a T shaped slit in the poblano big enough to reach in and carefully pull or cut seeds out and big enough to stuff after roasting.

Note: If you have trouble with using the above method to slice and stuff peppers, you may also cut the top off in order to stuff the peppers.

Roast the peppers by rubbing lightly with olive oil and broiling them in the oven or on the grill, turning as the peppers become charred. If you don't want peppers charred, blanch in boiling water for 15 to 20 seconds until pliable enough to stuff. If you prefer to remove the skin you may place in a Ziploc bag and seal. After 5 minutes skins should peel away easily. Make sure peppers have cooled enough before trying to stuff. Charred Skin makes for more flavors.

Stuffing

¼ cup Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, Mild

8 oz. claw crabmeat

8 oz. chopped cooked shrimp

3 pieces of thin sliced bacon (optional)

½ cup sour cream

½ cup cream cheese

¼ cup seasoned bread crumbs

¼ cup chopped roasted red peppers

Parmesan cheese, fresh grated

1. Preheat oven to 375°.
2. Coat baking pan with cooking spray. I use olive oil spray.
3. Combine crabmeat, shrimp, cream cheese, sour cream, bread crumbs, red pepper and Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa. Using your hands, slowly blend all ingredients together like you would a meatloaf.
4. Carefully spoon stuffing mixture into peppers in equal amounts. You can use less peppers if you want a lot of stuffing in each. More peppers, less stuffing equals more pepper taste.

5. Wrap each pepper with one strip of thin sliced bacon. (Optional, may use toothpicks to close the slit in the pepper.) I fry the bacon until light brown but still soft and then secure the peppers with the bacon and a toothpick. Sometimes just baking the bacon with the peppers does not allow enough time for the bacon to brown and it looks white and pasty.
6. Top with fresh grated Parmesan cheese.
7. Bake covered at 375° for 20 minutes.
8. Uncover and bake for an additional 15 minutes.

Serve with Texas Brew Fried Spanish Rice, Mexican Charro Beans, Borracho Beans or refried beans and corn or flour tortillas. Garnish with more Texas Brew Honey Roasted Chipotle Salsa, fresh Pico de Gallo, cilantro or Texas Brew Hot Cream Sauce.

Suggestions: After removing from the oven you may lightly cover with your favorite cheese and melt.

Stuffed Mushrooms: Just add a few cut up mushroom stems sautéed in butter and a little Parmesan cheese to the stuffing mix. Brush mushroom caps with melted butter. Stuff and bake at 350° in a pan greased with a healthy portion melted butter and minced garlic for about 15 to 20 minutes or until mushroom caps are tender. Remove when mushroom caps are tender and drizzle with Texas Brew Hot Cream Sauce for a divine appetizer.

Note: If you are only going to use this crab/shrimp stuffing for mushrooms, you should cut the recipe in half or more. It really makes a lot!
